

Call for Applications: Provost's Postdoctoral Fellowship Program

The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE) invites applications from outstanding Turtle Island Indigenous and Black researchers interested in being considered for nomination to the Provost's Postdoctoral Fellowship Program to work under the supervision of an OISE faculty member. OISE faculty conduct research in a wide range of disciplines, including education, psychology, and related fields in the social sciences and humanities.

Applicants who are successful at this first stage will be nominated by OISE for the Provost's materials together with a nomination letter to the OISE selection committee at oise.research@utoronto.ca by March 4, 202

Established in 1827, the University of Toronto is Canada's largest and most research-intensive university and the only Canadian university to be named in the top 20 in the Times Higher Education World University Rankings. Located in and around Toronto, one of the world's most diverse cities, the University of Toronto's vibrant academic life is enhanced by the cultural diversity of its own and surrounding community.